GENERAL ORDER 2010-01

IN RE 3150 WEST FLOURNOY

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Court and the Court's business located at 3150 West Flournoy shall cease doing business at 12:00 p.m., June 8, 2010, until the following day at 9:00 a.m., June 9, 2010.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the court located at 3150 West Flournoy, Chicago, Illinois, is closed from 12:00 p.m., June 8, 2010, until 9:00 a.m., June 9, 2010, for the following reasons:

1. Earlier in the morning, court clerks and other patrons detected an odor in the courthouse. The Chicago Fire Department was called to investigate. The firefighters at the scene determined the situation was not dangerous. They reported that diesel oil spilled into the storm drains and that scent seeped into the courthouse. The fumes were noxious, but non-threatening.
2. All prisoners scheduled to appear on Tuesday, June 8, 2010, will be brought before the Court on Wednesday, June 9, 2010. Individuals out on bond are scheduled to reappear before the Court on Thursday, July 15, 2010. All overnight defendants were sent to Central Bond Court.

This order shall be spread upon the record of this Court
