III. 298 FEE WAIVER PETITIONS

Applications for the waiver of fees filed pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/5-105 and Illinois Supreme Court Rule 298, will be ruled on in accordance with Illinois Supreme Court Order M.R. 30370 (Aug. 27, 2020, as amended Feb. 9, 2021) as follows:

B. *Hearings.

1. Initial In-Person Hearing Waived. Petitioners will no longer be assigned an automatic 14-day hearing date upon filing of a fee waiver. Each calendar judge will rule on the filed petition and the Clerk's Office will notify the applicant of the ruling.
2. Hearings Required. If the judge presiding over the matter determines an issue exists that requires a hearing before the judge can rule on the petition, the judge will set the matter for a hearing date no earlier than 21 days from the date of the order. The hearing may be held remotely by video or telephone conference, or in person with the proper protocols in place. The order will contain the directions for attending the hearing.

IV. MORTGAGE FORECLOSURES

Pursuant to Chief Judge Evans' General Administrative Order 2020-07, the following motion practice procedures will be in place for foreclosure matters, barring further unforeseen circumstances:

A. *Foreclosure Proceedings May Partially Resume.

Foreclosure proceedings may resume, effective June 25, 2021, under the following circumstances:

1. Residential Foreclosures.
  - a) Non-Covered Persons as defined by Executive Order 2021-13. Residential foreclosures, where a mortgagor or any resident or tenant lives in the property, may proceed through entry of the judgment of foreclosure. Service of Process, routine motions for matters such as special representatives and special process servers, may commence in the normal course for residential cases.
  - b) Covered Persons as defined by Executive Order 2021-13. Residential foreclosure cases where a defendant returns a COVID-19 Declaration pursuant to Section IV(A)(1)(c), shall be stayed until the Governor lifts the eviction moratorium for Covered Persons. A late response by the defendant shall not prohibit a future stay of the foreclosure action.
  - c) Notice to Residents of COVID-19 Declaration. Plaintiff shall send a notice of the "[Form] Declaration Under Penalty of Perjury for State of Illinois Executive Order 2020-72, as amended by Executive Order 2020-74” which is available on the website IHDA.org that allows any resident of the property to notify the plaintiff’s attorney if the resident qualifies as a Covered Person under the Governor’s Executive Order 2021-13 (June 11, 2021). The Covered Person affidavit should be returned only to the Plaintiff’s attorney for expeditious handling.

- i) Recipients. A separate notice shall be sent to each known individual living at the property, including but not limited to the mortgagor(s) and any tenants or sub-lessees known to the plaintiff. The plaintiff shall also send an additional notice to the property address to “Resident or Tenants of [Property Address]” to capture any unknown owners or residents at the property.
  - ii) Content of the Notice. The Letter shall contain the same language or substantially the same information as the sample letter attached to this General Administrative Order in Attachment 2, which contains:
    - Name and Address of the Recipient;
    - Case Number and Case Caption;
    - Information about the Form Declaration, what it is, and where to find it;
    - A copy of the Form Declaration;
    - Address for Return of the form (Plaintiff’s firm address); and
    - Identification of 30 days to return the form to the plaintiff’s firm.
  - iii) Timing of the Notice. For cases pending with the court, plaintiff shall send the notice to the Recipients and wait the requisite 30 days before proceeding with a motion for entry of judgment of foreclosure. For any newly filed cases, plaintiff shall send the notice within fourteen (14) business days of service or within thirty (30) days of filing of the complaint, whichever date is sooner.
  - iv) Response by Covered Persons. Any resident or tenant living at a property, who receives a notice letter from a plaintiff’s law firm and is a Covered Person, shall return the Covered Person’s Form Declaration to the plaintiff’s firm listed in the letter within thirty (30) days of the date of the letter. If the plaintiff provides an email or fax number for return, email or fax will be sufficient for return of the completed form instead of standard mail. The Covered Person should retain any proof of delivery that is available for their records.
- d) Affidavit of Compliance. In residential mortgage foreclosure cases, plaintiff must prepare an affidavit of compliance.
- i) Deadline to File Affidavit with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. In each case, plaintiffs shall file the affidavit of compliance with the Clerk of the Circuit Court within fourteen (14) days of the expiration of the 30-day period.

- ii) Contents of the Affidavit. The affidavit shall contain proof of compliance with Section IV(A)(1)(c) and attach any response from the defendant, without compromising personal information to the public record.
  - iii) Staying of the Case for Covered Persons. In cases where a resident has returned a Form Declaration attesting that he or she is a Covered Person, the plaintiff shall also submit a courtesy copy of the filed affidavit to the court within fourteen (14) days of the expiration of the 30-day period. The court shall immediately enter an order staying the proceedings and setting the matter for further status to allow the court to remain apprised of the status of the case.
  - iv) No Form Declaration Received. In cases where plaintiff did not receive any Form Declaration, plaintiff will still file the affidavit as directed in Section IV(A)(1)(d)(i), but may submit the courtesy copy of the affidavit of compliance to the court with its next motion scheduled for presentment.
2. Commercial Foreclosures. Commercial foreclosures may proceed through Judgment of Foreclosure. Commercial foreclosures will be stayed after entry of the judgment of foreclosure. No sales shall be scheduled or held until further order of the court unless exigent circumstances are raised with the Court first.
  3. Vacant or Abandoned Foreclosures. Foreclosures of vacant or abandoned properties shall proceed in the normal course and with sufficient proof that the property is vacant or abandoned. Litigants no longer need to present a “motion to proceed” prior to filing a motion for judgment of foreclosure if prior filings have attached sufficient proof of vacancy or abandonment. Vacant or abandoned properties can proceed to sale. The court retains discretion to request additional proof of vacancy or abandonment as may be necessary.
  4. Orders for Possession. Pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/15-1513:
    - a) No order for possession pursuant to a confirmation of a judicial sale in a residential foreclosure shall be entered until further order of the court.
    - b) The Sheriff shall not execute any order for possession in a residential foreclosure until further order of the court.
  5. Health and Safety Hazard; Exigent Circumstances. Any foreclosure case that is otherwise stayed after judgment in the General Administrative Order may proceed to sale and eviction where a tenant, lessee, sub-lessee, or resident of the property poses a direct threat to the health and safety of the other tenants, the public, or an immediate and severe risk to the property. A motion to proceed through sale and eviction, with documented proof of the health and safety risk must be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court and presented to the court for ruling prior to any residential or commercial case proceeding to sale and eviction. Any proof of a health and safety risk that would compromise protected private information about an individual in the public record must be appropriately redacted in accordance with applicable law or the motion shall include a request to file the documents under seal or include a request for an in camera review. In cases where the court determines a health and safety hazard exists, the foreclosure may proceed through sale and eviction as allowed by the Governor's Executive Orders.

B. *Emergency Motions. Emergency matters will be heard.

1. Definition of "Emergency": Emergency matters are defined as sudden and unforeseen circumstances that may cause injury, loss of life, or damage to property and that requires an urgent response and remedial action
2. Email: Litigants or lawyers may email the calendar for the case to schedule an emergency motion with chambers' staff. The movant should attach courtesy copies of the emergency motion and notice of emergency motion and any relevant filings to the email. Email addresses for communication are listed in Section G below.
3. Telephone: Litigants or lawyers may contact each judge's calendar's e-mail or phone to schedule an emergency motion with chambers' staff. If the emergency motion is scheduled over the telephone, courtesy copies should be delivered by email to the calendar for the case according to the directions of chambers' staff.

C. *Special Process Server Orders

1. Standing Quarterly Special Process Server Orders Pursuant to GAO 2007-03. Requests for Standing Special Process Server orders entered pursuant to GAO 2007-03 that are entered each quarter may be submitted to the court. Motions and proposed orders may be sent to the following email address: ccc.mfmlspsorders@cookcountyil.gov. Quarterly dates should comport with the following quarters:
  - January 1 – March 31
  - April 1 – June 30
  - July 1 – September 30
  - October 1 – December 31

Any proposed orders submitted with a different 3-month time frame will not be entered by the court.

2. Individual Special Process Server Requests. Requests in individual cases for Special Process Servers will be entertained by the judge assigned to the case.

D. Stay on Sales

1. Stay on Sales. All sales in foreclosure actions, except as otherwise provided in this order, are stayed until further order of the court.
2. No Scheduling of Sales. There shall be no scheduling of new sales or rescheduling of stayed sales in foreclosure actions which would displace a resident or entity until further order of the court. There is no date certain for the end of the stay on foreclosures due to the ongoing circumstances. The overall stay on the scheduling of the sales is to prevent the unnecessary accumulation of fees for publication and confusion among litigants around sales that are scheduled for a date immediately following the expiration of this order.
3. Notice & Publication. All sales that have been continued during the court's moratorium will require re-notice and re-publication, notwithstanding if the original sale date was less than 60 days from the new sale date.

E. Parties Encouraged to Communicate About Foreclosure Options.

The procedures identified in this General Administrative order do not prohibit any plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney from notifying defendants in pending cases about options available from the lender, such as a forbearance option available under the CARES Act, or any other option that may resolve a pending foreclosure. The court encourages the plaintiffs to communicate with defendants about any options that may ultimately lead to a resolution of a pending foreclosure and that do not dispossess a resident or business from the property in violation of this order.

A plaintiff may send a notice to a defendant that includes the options available and how to contact the lender to apply. A notice to a defendant may include, but is not limited to, information as follows:

- Notification that if the defendant has been affected by COVID-19, that the defendant may be eligible for mortgage forbearance under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act.
  - An explanation that a forbearance temporarily pauses mortgage payments and accrual of penalty fees;
  - Instructions on how to apply for a forbearance; and
  - Lender contact information.
- Information about how to obtain referrals to other resources for guidance, such as the JusticeCorps Court Information line (872) 529-1093, CARPLS (312) 738-9200, or Illinois Legal Aid Online www.illinoislegalaid.org.
- Contact information for both the lender and the plaintiff's firm; and
- Any other information that would educate a defendant about possible options from the lender and how to apply for those options.

Any plaintiff who sends a notice to the defendant is encouraged to keep a record of the communication for reference when foreclosures resume in their entirety. A lack of recordkeeping will not prohibit a foreclosure from proceeding.

F. *Triage of Cases & Motion Practice. The Mortgage Foreclosure Section will triage and hear cases as set forth below, barring further unforeseen circumstances.

1. Case Management Statuses. Plaintiff will provide the Court with a Case Management Status sheet and notice to the Respondent. The Plaintiff shall be excused from appearing on the date the case management is noticed. In the event Defendant appears, the Court shall enter an Order granting Defendant leave to file his/her answer and appearance. After the date for which the case was noticed and the defendant given an adequate time to respond, the Court shall enter an Order either striking the Case Management from the call (“4331”) or memorializing the time Defendant was granted to file his/her answer and appearance and shall provide a new status date. The court shall specify if the status is to be held by teleconference, a Zoom meeting, or an in-person proceeding based on any requests from parties.
2. Motion for Default, Summary Judgment, and Judgment of Foreclosure. The Motions for Default, Summary Judgment, and entry of Judgment of Foreclosure shall be noticed for a date as allowed through e-filing in the Clerk’s e-filing system. Plaintiff should file the Default Motion with all required documents required under the Court’s standing orders with notice to Defendant(s) and the Defendant(s) given an adequate time to respond. In the event Defendant(s) appear, the Court shall enter an Order of continuance and set the matter for either a teleconference, a video conference or an in Court proceeding. In the event Defendant(s) fail to appear, then the Court may enter a Default Order, Summary Judgment and an Order of Foreclosure within the Court’s discretion in the event the Plaintiff has complied with the procedural requirements of the Court. The parties may request a remote proceeding prior to sending out notice by contacting the court.
3. Contested Motions. Defendant(s) shall submit a response to the motion being contested and, where necessary, a briefing schedule to the Court and shall submit courtesy copies of their e-filed briefs on the Court’s designated e-mail. The parties shall indicate whether they are requesting or waiving oral argument. A clerk status shall be entered by the Court on a date after all briefs have been filed. On the Clerk Status date, the Court will enter an Order for oral argument or a written ruling date. The Court will determine whether the oral argument shall be held in open Court, via teleconferencing or by videoconference.
4. Receiver Motions. Motions relating to appointment of a receiver or any other matter relating to a receiver may proceed in the normal course. Parties shall schedule the motions for presentment in accordance with each judge’s policies and procedures.

5. Special Representatives. Motions relating to the appointment of a special representative or related to special representative fees may proceed in the normal course. Parties shall schedule the motions for presentment in accordance with each judge's policies and procedures.
6. Continued Sales. When the stay on sales is lifted, re-notice and re-publication will be required on all sales that were scheduled and continued due to the stay on foreclosures.
7. Pending Sale Approvals with Third-Party Bidders. This sub-section applies only to mortgage foreclosure cases where the sale occurred prior to March 16, 2020 and a third-party was the successful bidder and the sale is still pending approval due to COVID-19 protocols. The plaintiff may submit a motion, or the third-party bidder may submit a motion to intervene, for consideration by the court to void the sale and allow the third-party bidder to recover the funds being held from the sale.
8. Order Approving Sale. In any case where a sale is approved by the court to occur (such as in a vacant or abandoned property), Plaintiff shall file a Motion for an Order Approving Sale with all necessary attachments, notice to Defendant(s), and the Defendant(s) given an adequate time to respond. Plaintiff shall be excused from appearing for the Motion. In the event Defendant(s) appear, the Court shall enter an Order of continuance and set the matter for either a teleconference, a video conference or an in-person proceeding. In the event Defendant(s) fail to appear, then the Court may enter an Order Approving Sale within the Court's discretion in the event the Plaintiff has complied with the procedural requirements of the Court.
9. Proposed Agreed Orders. Proposed agreed orders may be filed with the Court at any time. The litigants shall forward a copy of any filed proposed agreed orders to court staff after it is filed. Once the proposed agreed orders are sent to chambers' staff, the Court will determine how to proceed to rule on such Proposed Orders
10. Limits on In-Person Proceedings. In-person proceedings will be governed by the directives of the Chief Judge. If a matter needs to be heard in person, and in-person proceedings are allowed by the Chief Judge, no more than 10 people will be allowed in the Courtroom at any given time including the Court and its staff, until further order of court.
11. Courtesy Copies. Courtesy copies may be delivered electronically via email to the email address assigned to the calendar for the case.

G. *Motions Rescheduled for a Later Date. At any point during the continuing COVID-19 protocols, the Court's staff may contact counsel or self-represented litigants, as necessary and possible, to reschedule matters for effective administration of cases.

H. Communications with the Court. Each order entered by the Court shall contain the court's email and phone number for contact. Parties and litigants may email the calendar to which a case is assigned for emergency matters, to deliver courtesy copies, or to deliver proposed orders. The email addresses for each mortgage foreclosure calendar are as follows:

Tenant Declaration Form Overview

TAKE ACTION: Sign the Tenant Declaration Form to protect yourself and your household from eviction for nonpayment of rent. Under Governor Pritzker's Executive Order 2020-72, as amended by Executive Orders 2020-74, 2021-01 and 2021-04, eviction protections are now limited to specific households. If you owe rent, your landlord may not file an eviction action against you if you provide your landlord with a declaration stating that you meet the following 4 criteria:

1. INCOME: At least one of the following applies to me:
  - (i) I expect to earn no more than $99,000 in annual income for Calendar Year 2020 (or no more than $198,000 if filing a joint tax return), or
  - (ii) I was not required to report any income in 2019 to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS), or
  - (iii) I received an Economic Impact Payment (i.e., the stimulus check) pursuant to Section 2001 of the CARES Act.
2. INABILITY TO MAKE PAYMENT DUE TO COVID-19: I am unable to make a full rent or housing payment due to a COVID-19 related hardship including, but not limited to, substantial loss of income, loss of compensable hours of work or wages, or an increase in out-of-pocket expenses directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic; and
3. BEST EFFORTS: I am making my best efforts to make timely partial payments that are as close to the full payment as my circumstances permit, taking into account other expenses that I must pay (e.g., food, utilities, phone and internet access, school supplies, cold-weather clothing, medical expenses, child care, and transportation costs, including car payments, maintenance, and insurance); and
4. AT RISK: If evicted, I would likely become homeless, or be forced to move into and live in close quarters in a new shared living setting because I have no other available housing options.

Anyone with a legal right to evict you, including your landlord, is required to provide a copy of this 2-page declaration form to every tenant on the lease at least 5 days before your landlord can give you a notice of termination of your tenancy. If you are a tenant who fits the criteria listed above, you must sign the declaration form under penalty of perjury and return it to your landlord to be protected under the Executive Order. You should also retain a copy of the signed declaration for yourself.

If a landlord has reason to believe that a tenant poses a direct threat to the health and safety of other tenants or an immediate and severe risk to property, they can file an eviction action against that person, even if they have completed a declaration.

Please note that, when Executive Order 2020-72 is no longer in effect, your landlord may require full payment of rent.

[FORM] DECLARATION UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY FOR STATE OF ILLINOIS EXECUTIVE ORDER 2020-72

This declaration is for tenants, lessees, sub-lessees, and residents of residential properties who are covered by State of Illinois Executive Order 2020-72 (“EO 2020-72”) temporarily halting residential evictions (not including foreclosures on home mortgages) to prevent the further spread of COVID-19. Pursuant to EO 2020-72, you must provide a copy of this declaration to your landlord, owner of the residential property where you live, or any other person or entity who has a right to have you evicted or removed from where you live in order to invoke the protections of EO 2020-72. Each adult listed on the lease, rental agreement or housing contract should complete this declaration. EO 2020-72 prohibits any person who submits this declaration from being evicted or removed from their residence through March 6, 2020, unless the person poses a direct threat to the health and safety of other tenants or an immediate and severe risk to property. EO 2020-72 may be amended or extended. EO 2020-72 does not relieve you of the obligation to pay rent or comply with any other obligation that you may have pursuant to your lease or rental agreement. This declaration is sworn testimony, meaning that you can be prosecuted, go to jail or pay a fine if you lie, mislead or omit important information.

I certify under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 720 ILCS 5/32-2, that the foregoing are true and correct:

- I either expect to earn no more than $99,000 in annual income for Calendar Year 2020 (or no more than $198,000 if filing a joint tax return), was not required to report any income in 2019 to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, or received an Economic Impact Payment pursuant to Section 2001 of the CARES Act;
- I am unable to make a full rent or housing payment due to a COVID-19 related hardship including, but not limited to, substantial loss of income, loss of compensable hours of work or wages or an increase in out-of-pocket expenses directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic;
- I am using best efforts to make timely partial payments that are as close to the full payment as my circumstances may permit, taking into account other non-discretionary expenses;<sup>1</sup> and
- If evicted, I would likely become homeless, or be forced to move into and live in close quarters in a new congregate or shared living setting because I have no other available housing options.
- I understand that I must still pay rent or make a housing payment and comply with other obligations that I may have under my tenancy, lease agreement or similar contract. I further understand that fees, penalties or interest for not paying rent or making a housing payment on time as required by my tenancy, lease agreement or similar contract may still be charged or collected.
- I further understand that at the end of this temporary halt on evictions, my landlord, the owner of the residential property where I live or any other person or entity who has a right to have me evicted or removed from where I live, may require payment in full for all payments not made prior to and during the temporary halt and failure to pay may make me subject to eviction pursuant to state laws and local ordinances.

I understand that any false or misleading statements or omissions may result in criminal and civil actions for fines, penalties, damages, or imprisonment.
